GIN WINS SILVER IN LA & NY

BY MOTHER EARTH SPIRITS

Mother Earth Spirits is proud to announce that Mother Earth Gin was awarded two silver medals on June 9th, 2018. The Los Angeles International Spirits Competition and New York International Spirits Competition have both awarded Mother Earth Spirits Gin a silver medal in the Gin category.

The 9th Annual New York International Spirits Competition took Place on April 15th, 2018 in New York City. Nearly 600 spirits entries from around the world competed in a blind tasting where top spirits buyers from around the New York metropolitan area judged the products by their category and price. Mother Earth Spirit Gin was awarded a silver medal in the Gin category.

The Los Angeles International Spirits Competition recognizes the finest in spirits, flavored and not, mixed and straight up. Celebrating its twelfth year as a competition, the event boasts a cutting edge judging panel comprised of the discerning palates of mixologists, spirits journalists, esteemed bar owners and educators. Mother Earth Spirits Gin was awarded a silver medal in the Gin category.

"Our whole team is very proud of both of these wins," said Kevin Graham, Mother Earth Spirits' Head Distiller. Since opening in 2014, the distillery has seen increasing growth and recognition, particularly for Mother Earth Gin. "We've worked hard to get to where we are today, and we can't wait to see what the future holds," concluded Graham.

"Our whole team is very proud of both of these wins."
